ORDER:

Whereas on reconciliation of PPC ledger balance with Cash books as on 31-03-2009 at Central Prison, Rajahmundry, an amount of Rs.85,758/- was found short. On verification of records it was found that even though Canteen Coupons were issued to certain prisoners, the value of coupons was not deducted from the PPC accounts of the prisoners by the authorities concerned. Charges were framed against 17 members.

2. A discreet enquiry has been ordered and out of 17 members charges were not proved against 13 members. Government vide reference 2nd cited dropped further action against the (13) Staff members whose charges were not proved by the Enquiry Officer.

3. Out of (13) Staff members, (6) members only were suspended from service and dropped from charges. The remaining other (7) staff members were not suspended from service and dropped from charges.

4. The DG Prisons vide reference 4th read above while forwarding the representations of the individuals requested to regularize the suspension period of the (6) staff members duly releasing all consequential benefits at the earliest.

5. Government, after careful examination of the matter hereby regularize the suspension period of the following said (6) officers duly releasing all consequential benefits:
